Ongoing living history and activities to enjoy

In addition to timed displays, most of the above groups have living history encampments and displays for you to explore. Plus:

- Children can enjoy (safe) have-a-go archery with the Knights Hospitaller Association (a small charge applies)
- Explore soldiers' encampments through the ages. Find out what life was like in past ages, what soldiers and their families wore, ate, worried and joked about.
- Experience the history and technique of dueling with swords with the Society for the Study of Swordsmanship.
- Enjoy C17th living history by Autolyucus Enterprises
- Jacobites of the Charles Edward Stuart Society
- Meet westerners of Cankaota
- Discover what it was like to be a Russian soldier during WWI, presented by The Russians
- Encounter WWII civilians from Civilians at War and soldiers of The Lovat Scouts and Airborne Associates
- Visit a WWII hat exhibition by JJ's Vintage Hats
- Browse through a fascinating selection of historical craftsmen and traders.
